ADDITIONAL RULES BASED ON ACCOMMODATION LAW

Cleaning and renovation cost	Tenant has to pay cleaning, emptying and renovation cost, if the apartment is not emptied and cleaned at the time of rental period termination. Also cellar storage lockers must be emptied when the rental period ends either they are used or not. It is recommended to put a lock on the cellar storage door so that other people will not put stuff in there. Typical cleaning and emptying cost: fridge (50€), oven (80€), cabinets and shelves (50€), WC + bathroom (80€), general cleaning (150€), emptying cellar storage (100€). Cleaning and emptying cost depend on the amount of the work.
Disturbing living	If tenant(s) will constantly cause disturbances to the other people living in the building, breaking the house rules or causing other problems, this contract can be cancelled or terminated.
Persons and long absence	If there are other people living in the apartment more than one month, they should be informed to the landlord and the property manager. If tenant(s) are long periods (several weeks) absent, it should be informed to the landlord for possible emergency situations.
Home insurance	Tenant(s) must take home insurance for the apartment and stuff there in order to cover break-in, vandalism, leakage, and fire accidents and it should cover "careless" or not purposely caused accidents by the tenant(s). Copy of the insurance document should be delivered to the landlord.
Fire alarm	Apartment should be equipped with fire alarm. Tenants are responsible to buy such and keep it functional.
Apartment condition	Law of the accommodation apartment rental obliges tenants to keep the apartment in good condition: tenants should check the proper functionality of the toilet and water pipe and heating systems in the apartment. Malfunctions of the devices and also suspicious leaks, moisture, mold, mechanical breaks, non-functional heating, glass breaks etc should be informed to the landlord and house company manager or service people immediately. If not informed might cause responsibility to part of the damage cost if caused by delayed inform.
Taking care of apartment	Tenant(s) are responsible of keeping bath room drain cleaned. If some other drain systems become non-functional, like toilet doesn't flush or sink doesn't flow, contact service people. Apartment must be cleaned regularly and thorough cleaning when needed so that at the end of the rental period there is no need for major cleaning. Anyhow the next tenant must be able to move in without cleaning the apartment. During the major cleaning of the apartment windows, fridge and stove/oven background, floor moldings etc must be cleaned. Unnecessary darkening of wall papers should be prevented to avoid furniture touch to the wall papers. If the apartment was not fully satisfactorily cleaned when moving in, the tenant(s) moving out should anyhow clean the apartment properly (and not to refer how it was when moving in).
Wall mirrors, drilling holes	Wall mirror attachment by glueing to the wall is not permitted. When some need to be attached to the wall, old screw holes should be utilised if possible. New holes should be drilled as few as possible and for small screws. Think twice if it is really needed to drill the holes or could the attachment be done otherwise. If tenants do too much unnecessary holes or otherwise damage construction, they are responsible of the correction or its cost.
Apartment shape	Apartment is rented in that condition it is at the time of renting out. Tenants are responsible of the cost or correction for causing extra worn out or damage of the surfaces, furniture or devices more than what can be assumed to be caused by normal living.
Smoking	Smoking is strictly prohibited in the apartment. Tenants are responsible of cleaning, smell removal and possible painting of the surfaces.
Pets	Keeping of pets in the apartment will be separately decided between tenant and landlord.
Payments	If payments are not paid in time they can be requested by legal acts and tenants are responsible of the original payments added by the cost of legal acts. Rev. 20.8.2022 TURN!
